Open House For Sharon On Birthday

Miss Sharon Watkins was complimented at an open house on Saturday, April 15, from 7 to 10 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Sommers, 3024 Eldorado Ave., celebrating her 18th birthday.

The patio was festively decorated with Japanese lanterns and carousels.

The birthday table was centered by a beautifully decorated cake and spring flowers.

Approximately 70 guests attended, among them being Sharon's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Watkins of Mesa, Ariz., and an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Heber Watkins of Sacramento.

Miss Linda Watkins, a cousin, presided at the punch bowl and cake was served by Mrs. Melvin H. Porter.

Miss Susan Sparks was in charge of the guest book. A tape recording of the party was made for the honoree.

Sharon will be graduated from Torrance High school in June.

SPRING CARNIVAL... Fern-Greenwood PTA will stage its annual school carnival tomorrow evening from 6 to 9 p.m. on the school grounds. All kinds of fun booths as well as cakes, coffee, hot dogs and candy will be available for patrons. For their silhouette booth, Mrs. B. F. Townsend is tracing a silhouette of her daughter, Jennifer, while Mrs. M. F. Kraegel is doing the cut outs for this booth. The public is invited.

RUMMAGE SALE TO AID SCOUTS

Mothers Auxiliary of Explorer Post 315X is holding a rummage sale on May 5 and 6 in Torrance. Location will be announced later.

Funds raised will provide the Explorers with needed equipment and will also assist with their summer camp.

Post 315X is sponsored by the Moose Lodge of Torrance.

Anyone having donations for the sale is asked to call Mrs. Mike Rogow or Mrs. Lloyd Brady.

Giant Sale Announced By Society

Nativity Catholic Church Altar society has plans well under way for a large Rummage Sale to be held in the Parish Hall, 1420 Cota Ave., Torrance, the weekend of May 5 and 6. Doors will be open at 10 a.m. each morning and remain open until 8 p.m. each evening.

Large selections of clothing, cleaned and arranged in order, as well as furniture, toys, jewelry, dishes, pots and pans, curtains, knickknacks, and many various miscellaneous items will be offered.

Mmes. Milton Boudreaux, Clarence Junior and Frank Dihope, co-chairman of event, promise many outstanding bargains for thrifty minded shoppers. All articles will be arranged and in perfect order making "rummaging" unnecessary.

Among the many women assisting the chairman are Mmes. Fred Cameron, Corwin Dean, and John Tweedy who are doing the washing and ironing. Others include, Mmes. Harley Berning, Frank Zboyan, John Cherrie, Michael Catena, Carroll Thornton, Robert Wilson, Leonard Thornton, Arnold O'Connor, Edmund Metivier, and Anthony Zamprini. Assisting with the setting up are Mr. Morin and Mr. LeBlanc.

Pickup service is being handled by Mmes. John Redding, Milton Bruce and Edmund Metivier. The Parish Hall will be open every day except Sunday for contributions.

Rebekahs

"Brothers Night" was observed by the Torrance Rebekah lodge at its meeting Wednesday, April 26, at the Torrance Masonic Temple, 2326 Cabrillo Ave. Olive Jennings was in charge.

Howard Mangan was chairman for the evening which also celebrated the 142nd anniversary of the IOOF lodge.

On Wednesday evening, May 3, the Fun and Fund club of Rebekah lodge 347 will meet at the Masonic Temple for a meeting at 10 a.m., followed by a pot luck luncheon. Fronia Branagh will be in charge.

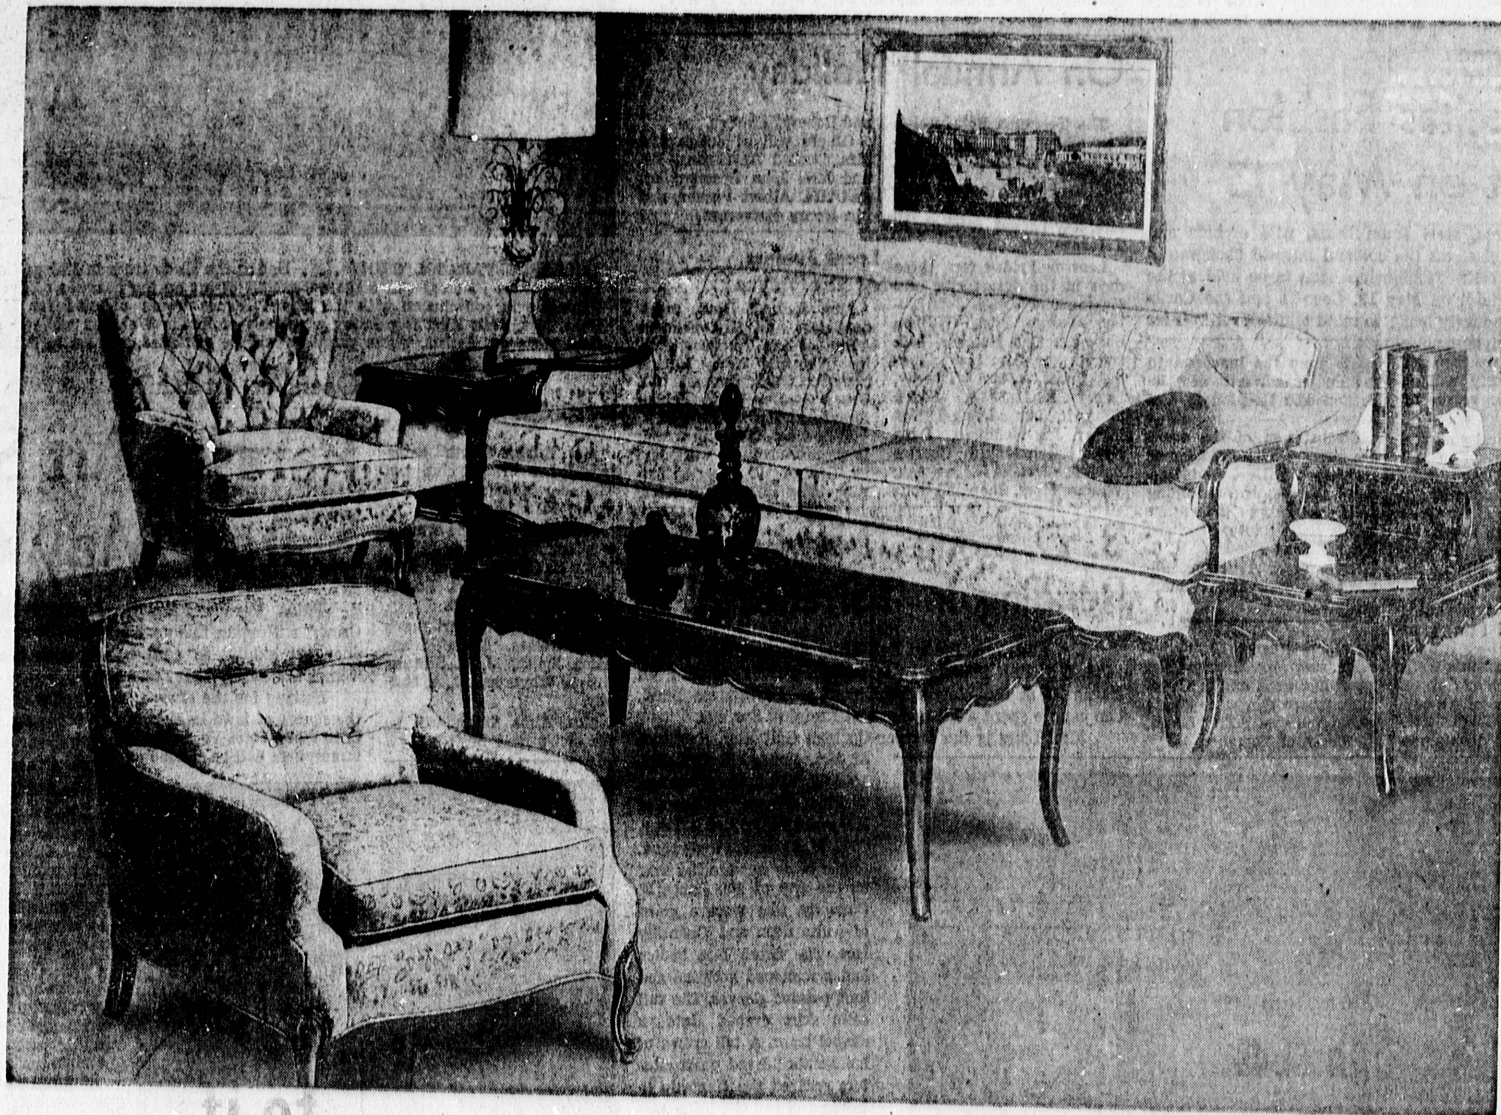

On the evening of May 3, at 6 p.m., the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs will have a pot luck dinner at the Temple. Bert Taut is chairman.

The Square Links dance club will stage an exhibition of square dancing. Odd Fellows, Rebekahs and their families are invited.

The lodge will observe Friendship Night on May 10. Freida Shaffer is chairman for the evening.
